Personal Statement

I was out of the state on business when they say this was "signed" occurred back then, i got a bill from them, called and asked what it was they said i applied for a 10K loan to repair my sewer. I paid them 5k in cash i never signed any loan agreement for any amount. conveniently both the insurance adjuster and the guy were dismissed from their respective companies upon my inquiry. They then placed a lien on my home, sent people to my house in a threatening manner. They forced me, under duress with their visit to make a settlement offer. I never signed anything or verbally agreed to anything. The documents they have are digital, they claimed it was an IP based signature? no one can explain that to me. to have my IP they would need to be on my network or somehow otherwise infiltrate my network. As of last November i had to file ch 13 to save my home from foreclosure for property taxes, these guys are trying to put a claim in for the listed amount.
